03. Co-Organizers

03-1. International NGO History Forum for Peace in East Asia

Samuel Lee President International NGO Forum for Peace in East Asia

The International NGO History Forum for Peace in East Asia("The International NGO History Forum" in brief) has been formed with aims to explore agendas related to peace and history and to seek common perception on history with civil society organizations at home and abroad, which has developed activities in various fields for the construction of peace in East Asia through reconciliation of history.

Based on successful hosting of preceding International NGO History conferences, "The International NGO History Forum" aims to become a globally recognized NGO Association through international networking among civil society leaders and researchers.

"The International NGO History Forum" is trying to set a stage to share common agendas and global issues together with member or partner organizations at home and abroad.

03-2. History : International NGO History Forum for Peace in East Asia

(Phnom Penh, Cambodia)

03-3. Northeast Asian History Foundation

Hakjoon Kim President, NORTHEAST ASIAN HISTORY FOUNDATION

The Northeast Asian History Foundation is a policy research organization founded to seek solutions to the conflicts in the Northeast Asian region and to form a common base to contribute to peace and prosperity in the region. The Foundation encourages long-term and integrated research on historical issues and research activities to resolve the conflicts over Northeast Asian history by promoting expansive perspectives.

03-4. Kyung Hee Graduate School of Public Policy & Civic Engagement

Dongsoo Lee Dean, Graduate school of public policy& civic engagement

Kyung Hee Graduate School of Public Policy & Civic Engagement was reorganized in 2011 by merging the Graduate School of Public Administration with the Graduate School of NGO Studies which were founded in 1980 and 1999 respectively. It was reestablished with the aim to become the world's prestigious educational institution seeking for public governance in the government and civil society area.

The goal is to perform a major role in accomplishing publicness in all areas in society from local government to global governance. To achieve this, Kyung Hee Graduate School of Public Policy & Civic Engagement is trying to educate students with talent who can put knowledge into practice and use this to contribute to welfare of the society and humanity and also to student's self-improvement.
